

This Nashville recording artist from Sauk City, WI has a strong passion for authentic country music. Dan has a gift for connecting with his audiences, and his high energy live shows have helped him rapidly gain a loyal fanbase since his first show, in August of 2018. Dan draws influence from traditional country legends and his sound will have you reminiscing on the days of prime country acts like Daryle Singletary, George Strait, Alan Jackson, Clint Black, and Dwight Yoakam. Dan went to Nashville at the end of 2020 and began recording his debut EP, "A Country Mile" produced by Jason Wyatt and released in August of 2021.
